July 16, 2009

Greetings.

Make room at your summertime picnic table for the following banquet of literary news. This is not a table from which you will leave hungry.

We encourage you to pass this email on to others. If you are reading the Update for the first time and wish to subscribe, please send me your email address with "Subscribe" in the subject line. This is a free service.

To submit news items, deadlines are the 15th and 30th of each month, and I require a format from which I can simply copy-and-paste. Please be brief. I look forward to including your activities.

If you are responsible for publicity, please put us on your media list for news releases. Because it is nearly impossible to organize/categorize each activity, we do try generally to highlight dates as a point of reference.

(I generally do not edit submissions, and do not guarantee accuracy of content.)

If you are no longer interested in receiving this newsletter, please respond with "Unsubscribe" in the subject line.

This effort is supported in part by a grant from the Boise City Department of Arts and History.

Thank you,
Betty Rodgers

Today - Mitch Wieland's new book, *God's Dogs, has just been published this month. Read an article about the book in the Boise Weekly at <http://www.boiseweekly.com/boise/wordperfect/Content?oid=1092655>. He's reading at The Cabin on July 16th at 7:30 Here's a glimpse into the book and its author:

God's Dogs is set in Owyhee County. All ten of the book's stories have been published in prestigious literary journals, including The Southern Review, The Kenyon Review, The Yale Review, and TriQuarterly. One of the stories, "The Bones of Hagerman," has been selected for reprint in the national prize anthology Best of the West 2009 and will appear alongside stories by Annie Proulx, Joyce Carol Oates, and Louise Erdrich. God's Dogs has received blurbs from Pulitzer Prize-winner Richard Ford and NPR's book commentator Alan Cheuse, among others.

Wieland is a full professor of creative writing at Boise State, where he's taught fiction writing for thirteen years. He is one of the founding faculty of Boise State's MFA program. He is also the founding editor of The Idaho Review, which has had nine stories reprinted in national prize anthologies, including The Best American Short Stories, Prize Stories: The O. Henry Awards, The Pushcart Prize, and New Stories from the South. Another seventeen stories from The Idaho Review were short-listed by these same anthologies. He is the recipient of a 2007 Christopher Isherwood Fellowship, and two Literature Fellowship from the Idaho Commission on the Arts.

Wieland also has a signing at Borders in Boise on Friday the 25th from 1-3 p.m.

From Ahsahta Press

Our summer subscription sale starts now! Regular subscriptions cost $95 (a 20% savings over cover prices on 7 books), but if you subscribe before Sept. 1, you'll get all 7 for just $75 -- along with a big thank-you from us in the form of Dan Beachy-Quick's Apology for the Book of Creatures. Save $52 and get a free $15 chapbook to boot!

Why this is a good idea:

1. It's our 35th birthday!
2. You get brand-new books from Kate Greenstreet, Brigitte Byrd, Julie Carr, Brenda Iijima, Susan Tichy, Sandra Doller, and Lance Phillips, delivered free of shipping charges as they're published in September, January, March, and May.
3. You'll help the press stay solvent. I understand that $75 is a lot to spend (though not a lot for SEVEN amazing books) -- if that's not for you, would you please consider buying just one book? If everyone getting this e-mail purchased just one book from Ahsahta Press, we'd breathe a lot easier. And think of it -- you might meet a poet new to you or discover one you've been hearing about.

Check out our website--and subscribe before Sept. 1 for a great deal!

Alley Repertory Theater (ART) announced an innovative new program and the first of its kind in Boise's theater history, an annual reading series of new plays by local, emerging playwrights, called "Plays from the Alley." Audiences are invited to come be part of the storytelling every Monday night in July at Visual Arts Collective, where they'll hear a new play led by local directors and read by well known and emerging local actors.

Each reading will begin at 7:30 pm, with doors open at 6:30. Audiences are invited to bring picnics to enjoy before or during the readings. No outside alcohol will be allowed, but beer and wine will be available for purchase. Tickets are $7 per reading, and are available at the door or online at www.alleyrep.org.

The remaining scripts are, Inflection Point by Greg Hampikian (July 20), and Cocktails at the Fisher's by Kelly Broich (July 27). All readings are at Visual Arts Collective (VaC), 3638 Osage Street, Garden City, ID 83714, behind Woman of Steel Gallery, one block north of Chinden. VaC is a 21-and-older venue. Valid IDs are required. Call (208) 388-4278 or visit www.alleyrep.org for more information. Tickets can also be purchased at www.visualartscollective.com

Vardis Fisher, though obscure to many, is considered by some to be Idaho's greatest writer. One of the most prolific writers of his or any generation, Fisher is best known for his historical novels of the old West, including Mountain Man (on which the film Jeremiah Johnson is based) and his 12-volume Testament of Man series of novels, depicting the history of humans from cave to modern civilization. Based on real events in Fisher's life, Cocktails at the Fisher's invites us to be a fly on the wall for an evening of drinks, discussions and a bit of debauchery with the great Idaho writer and several colorful, historical, literary guests at his house.

Society of Professional Journalists
July 25, 2009

Narrative Writing Workshop, Boise State University Student Union, Boise, Idaho

The Society of Professional Journalists invites early career reporters and front-line editors to step out of the inverted pyramid and into the art of storytelling! Through SPJ's Narrative Writing Workshops, participants learn options for reinvigorating the writing craft. Join Pulitzer Prize winning journalist and reporter Tom Hallman, Jr., from 9 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. for a day filled with tips for creating excitement in news stories.

Tom Hallman, Jr. won the 2001 Pulitzer Prize for Feature Writing for his series of articles on Sam Lightner in The Oregonian. He has been a Pulitzer Prize finalist twice before, and has been the recipient of every major writing award for journalism, including multiple American Society of Newspaper Editors awards, a Scripps Howard National Journalism Award, a National Headliner Award and a Nixon National Writing Award. A reporter for more than 25 years, Hallman has been at The Oregonian since 1980 and is currently a senior reporter specializing in features and narratives. ### IDAHO magazine announces Young Writer's Program

Young Writers, Parents, Teachers, Mentors.....a writing opportunity to encourage emerging young writers:

IDAHO magazine's Young Writer's Program is designed to encourage Idaho students, from kindergarten through high school, to develop and improve their writing skills by learning what it is like to submit freelance articles to a magazine with statewide circulation.

The goal is to publish stories by student authors in IDAHO magazine. The author of each published story will be paid $25 for one-time rights to that story (both in print and online), and each May, the author of the story deemed to be the best of those published in the previous twelve issues will receive that year's IDAHO magazine Young Writers Award.

Additional details, along with application information and writer's guidelines, can be found at IDAHO magazine's web site, www.idahomagazine.com or by e-mailing Sheila Robertson, Coordinator of Educational Outreach at srobertson@idahomagazine.com.

IDAHO WRITERS GUILD In the month since the formation of the Idaho Writers Guild was announced in Boise, the organization has attracted more than 40 members and the leadership team has been busy.

The Idaho Writers Guild offers opportunities for networking, employment and education to writers in all genres, from fiction and poetry to journalism, business and technical writing. Editors, agents and publishers, too, are welcome. Membership application may be made online at www.IdahoWritersGuild.org or by mail to The Cabin, 801 S. Capitol Blvd., Boise, ID 83702. (Information: 208-331-8000.) For $25 a year, any member of The Cabin may become either a Roster member or an Associate member of the Guild. Leadership team meetings are open to the public and held at Noon on the 2nd Wednesday of the month at the Cabin, 801 S. Capitol Blvd., Boise.

Boise State University Launches New Effort to Publish Books of Scholarship about Idaho and the West - Boise State University is undertaking a new plan to market and publish books of popular scholarship about Idaho and the West, starting with 35 titles that have a tie to the university. The university-wide project is housed under Boise State's Division of Research.

The project's intent isn't to be a university-wide press, but instead a flexible publishing consortium that will feature juried non-fiction and popular scholarship with proven market appeal that focuses on Idaho and the American West. The project will expand beyond books to include on-line and downloadable works, print-on-demand publications and DVDs. Overall, the project will consolidate and coordinate the university's research and publication efforts.

In addition to juried works published in the Boise State series, a publications catalog, "New U Writings," is available now and a Web site, www.booksboisestate.com, will include writings by Boise State professors published elsewhere by notable university and commercial presses. For more information, call 426-1514.

LOST HORSE PRESS is pleased to present A POETRY WRITING WORKSHOP
featuring CAROLYNE WRIGHT.

STRONG MEASURES AND NONCE SENSE: An Exaltation of Forms in Poetry

Despite those sonnets that scared us off in high school, forms have a delightful ability to draw poetry out of us that we didn't know we had! We'll read and talk about—and try writing—some of these strong measures: sestina, villanelle, ghazal, pantoum, and syllable-count forms, like haiku and hendecasyllabics. In addition, we'll enjoy 'nonce' forms such as the abecedarian, the acrostic, the anaphoric 'rant,' the round, word-counted verse, and "the poet writes back / the poet strikes back" poem that replies to works by other poets—to extend the conversation of poetry in new ways.

CAROLYNE WRIGHT has published eight books of poetry, a collection of essays, and three volumes of poetry translated from Bengali and Spanish. Her previous collection, Seasons of Mangoes and Brainfire (Lynx House Press), won the Blue Lynx Prize and the American Book Award. She has returned to her native Seattle, where she is on the faculty of the Whidbey Writers Workshop MFA Program and the Board of Directors of AWP.

On-line Writing Workshops with Ken Rodgers, MFA:

Meditative Essay

Or the creation of the lyric meditative essay

5-Week On-line class, Saturdays, August 8 through Sept 5, $55.00

- Push the written limits of your ponderings with the power of lyricism
- Live the essential questions of your life through your writing
- Live those questions now!
- Live them through the very short essay
- Use imagery that shows and smells and moves and sounds
- Use the energy chocked in verbal repetition
- Use altered diction and syntax
- Write, write, write

A lively creation funneled through the vigor of the very short essay. An essay cramped yet fortified by length restrictions, fueled by imagery and phonic repetition and the other tools a poet would use to make words dance and jive and shuffle—all while educating both the writer and the reader.

Poetic Grammar

How poets exploit grammar more than any other writers

5-Week On-line class, Saturdays, August 1 through August 29, $55.00

- Derive power from your use of grammar: syntax, condensation, diction, punctuation
- Learn to challenge the reader's expectations
- We will read poetry that shows us a way to a NEW GRAMMAR
- We will write, write, write

For information or to confirm your class registration, contact kennethrodgers@msn.com, phone 208-938-3011, or view

GREAT RIFT WRITERS is a diverse group of practitioners of the literary arts. Our goal is to do justice to inner and outer landscapes. Criteria for membership is loose (and that's putting it mildly). Put your thoughts on paper, partake of monthly workshops, and demonstrate that you won't bleed to death under an assault of friendly criticism and you're likely to become a Great Rift Writer.

Workshops are from 7 to 9 PM on the 3rd Wednesday of every month, with some exceptions near holidays. Workshop Location: Bonneville County Extension Office, Upstairs Conference Room, 2925 Rollandet, Idaho Falls. Contact: Lynna Howard, lyнна@artmeetsadventure.com, www.artmeetsadventure.com (click on Great Rift Writers link)

DUES: Membership dues are $25.00 per year. Great Rift Writers is a non-profit organization. Leslie Ovard is acting treasurer, so please make checks payable to her. In the memo portion write "GRW MEMBERSHIP." You can bring cash or check to a GRW meeting; or mail payment to Lynna Howard at 441 Hummingbird Lane, Shelley, ID 83274 (Lynna's house is the GRW snail mail location). Prospective members can attend a couple of workshops first before deciding if they want to join or not. Optional "Homework Assignments" are posted on the website.

At The Flicks - Movies based on literature or literary subject matter:

Moon – Now showing

Sam Rockwell stars as an astronaut on the verge of coming home after a 3 year assignment on the far side of the moon with only GERTY, a computer, to talk to. But puzzling things start to go wrong for Sam in this dazzling science fiction story set in the near future. Duncan Jones (who is David Bowie's son) directs from his short story, Nathan Parker is the screenwriter; Kevin Spacey voices GERTY, a robot with a heart. "Moon wisely eschews the conventions and clichés of the genre and offers just the right elements of surprise." Claudia Puig, USA Today

Food, Inc. - Opens July 31

Director Robert Kenner explores the food production industry and features interviews with Michael Pollan (The Omnivore's Dilemma), Eric Schlosser (Fast Food Nation) and Joel Salatin, who owns a self-sustaining poultry and pig farm in Virginia and balances the film with ideas about how to salvage agriculture. Not rated. "A movie for the socially conscious, the nutritionally curious and the hungry. Does for the supermarket what Jaws did for the beach." John Anderson, Variety

The Big Sleep August 4 at 7:00

Partners in Crime, the mystery writers association, will sponsor a single showing of the Bogart/Bacall classic, directed by Howard Hawks from the Raymond Chandler detective novel featuring sleuth Philip Marlowe. Tickets are $8.50 for the public and free for members of the writers group.

Taking Woodstock - Opens August 28

Screenwriter James Schmaus adapted the book by Elliot Tiber, who allowed his parent's land to be used for the 1969 rock festival. Director Ang Lee has created a gentle comedy with a large cast that includes Demetri Martin, Liev Schreiber, Paul Dano, Emile Hirsch, Imelda Staunton, Jeffrey Dean Morgan, Kelli Garner and Eugene Levy. ® Nominated for the Golden Palm (Best Film) at the 2009 Cannes Film Festival

GRANT OPPORTUNITIES OPEN NOW

Boise-based artists and arts organizations are invited to consider grant opportunities through the Boise City Department of Arts & History's City Arts & History Fund Program. "Grants are awarded to those that provide the broadest benefit to residents and visitors and have a positive cultural impact on the community," says Terri Schorzman, department director. "Ideally, the funds awarded will expand cultural opportunities for individuals and organizations, developing audiences, and increasing awareness of art and history in everyday life."

One of the two categories is Cultural Initiatives, which provides up to $2,000 for special arts and history projects. The Anchor Fund, the second category, provides general operating support for Boise's arts and history organizations with budgets of at least $300,000. Grant applications need to demonstrate physical accessibility, cultural diversity, and community involvement. Applicants are encouraged to consult with Arts & History staff about their projects at least two weeks prior to the deadline. The program has $45,000 to disburse. Applications are due Friday, August 14. The award announcements will be made in September, allowing an 11-month project window. Visit the website for guidelines.

Caxton Press book wins Bronze in Travel Guide Category of ForeWord Magazine 2008 Book of the Year competition

Two books from Caldwell, Idaho publisher Caxton Press were recognized at the 11th annual ForeWord Magazine Book of the Year Awards. At a ceremony on May 29th, 2009 at BookExpo America in Los Angeles, 212 winners in 60 categories were honored. These books, representing the best work from independent publishers in 2008, were selected by a panel of librarian and bookseller judges.

Backcountry Roads, Idaho took the Bronze prize in the Travel Guide category. Author, Lynna Howard, and her brother, photographer Leland Howard, earned praise for their expert mix of creative nonfiction, facts, maps, GPS coordinates, and exceptional photography.

Another Caxton Press book, Owyhee Canyonlands, by Boise photographer Mark Lisk, received honorable mention in the ForeWord photography division. Caxton Press also publishes Lisk's Salmon River Country.

ForeWord's founder and publisher, Victoria Sutherland, spoke at the BookExpo America event and presented the awards. "These carefully chosen titles affirm our notion that the best ideas in written form are coming from the independent press community, and that with some distinction, will find a broader audience among the reading public," she said.

The complete list of winners, searchable by title, author, publisher, and category, is available online at <http://www.forewordmagazine.com/botya/> A complete list of Caxton Press books can be viewed at www.caxtonpress.com.

Adult Summer Reading: Through July 31 Create a Colorful Summer @ your library! ©

Do you have fond memories of summer reading as a child? Now, you can read for fun and prizes as an adult, too! Just enter our weekly drawing for a chance to win great prizes from local businesses every time you read two books. Books count whether you read them, listen to them, or read them aloud to others.

Boise residents with a public library card can register for Boise Public Library's Summer Reading program at the following locations:

the Main Library, 715 S. Capitol Blvd.; the Library! at Collister, 4724 W. State St.; the Library! at Hillcrest, 5246 W. Overland Rd.; or the Bookmobile.

Prize sponsors include Bark n' Purr, Bogus Basin Mountain Recreation Area, Chef Lou's, Crave Salon, the Flicks, Flying Pie Pizzeria and Opera Idaho. For more information, visit www.boisepubliclibrary.org.

Adult Summer Book Club Library! at Collister

Enjoy lively book discussions and iced tea this summer on the fourth Tuesday of every month at the Library! at Collister. The library is offering a summer book club for adult readers, with topics and genres chosen according to club member preferences. Book discussions will be led by a facilitator. The club will meet at 7 p.m. on July 28, and August 25.

July's title is Remember: a memoir of Nazi invasion, forced exile & concentration camp, by Lorissa Wilfong Holt. The August title will be selected at an upcoming meeting.

For more information about the program, call 562-4995 or visit www.boisepubliclibrary.org. The Library! at Collister is a branch of the Boise Public Library system, and is located at 4724 W. State St. in the Collister Shopping Center.

Short Story Writers & Readers

The Silverstone Branch of the Meridian Library is now hosting a reading group specifically for writers and fans of contemporary short stories. Working from the Ecco Anthology of Contemporary American Short Fiction, we meet every other Tuesday at 6:30 PM for a vigorous discussion of one story, with a special eye toward the author's style, technique, and craftsmanship. Writers looking to improve their work by studying published examples are encouraged to join us, though the group is open to anyone who enjoys the short story form. A schedule of our upcoming meetings can be found on our blog: <http://shortstorygroup.blogspot.com>. Contact Greg at the Meridian Library for more info: email greg@mld.org or phone 888-4451.

IDAHO MAGAZINE: Call for submissions

We are looking for queries on some longer stories for the magazine (2,500 to 3,000 words) with non-fiction topics on Idaho. We receive a deluge of shorter pieces, but it's nice to have some longer stories to include in each issue, as well, and using a chapter of a forthcoming book is a good way to get some pre-publicity and feedback before you go to press. See writers' guidelines on the website.

Idaho Humanities Council –

Pulitzer Prize-winning Journalist Timothy Egan to Speak in Coeur d'Alene on October 8

Pulitzer Prize-winning journalist and National Book Award winner Timothy Egan will present the IHC's 6th Annual Northern Idaho Distinguished Humanities Lecture on Thursday, October 8, 2009, at the Coeur d'Alene Resort. The event includes dinner, lecture, and a book signing. Egan's books will be available for sale at the event.

Tickets are available by clicking here or by calling the IHC at 888-345-5346. General tickets are $45. Benefactor tickets are $100, offering an invitation to a pre-dinner reception with Egan in a private home and close-up seating at the dinner and lecture. IHC always recommends reserving tickets early as the event usually sells out. The event is made possible in part by the Coeur d'Alene Press and Idaho Public Television.

Egan is the author of five books. His most recent, The Worst Hard Time, a story about survivors of the dustbowl of the 1930s, won the 2006 National Book Award for nonfiction, considered one of the nation's highest literary honors. He also shares a Pulitzer Prize, from 2001, as part of a team of New York Times reporters for their series, "How Race Is Lived in America."

Egan is an online, op-ed columnist for the New York Times, writing his "Outposts" opinion feature once a week – with a Western perspective.

Civil War Historian James McPherson to Speak in Boise on October 29

Pulitzer Prize-winning American Civil War historian James McPherson will be the speaker at the Idaho Humanities Council's 13th Annual Distinguished Humanities Lecture and Dinner on Thursday, October 29, 2009, at Boise's Centre on the Grove. McPherson is professor emeritus of history at Princeton University and one of the most distinguished historians of our time. The event is made possible in part by the OfficeMax Boise Community Fund, with additional support from Idaho Public Television.

Tickets are available by clicking here or by calling the IHC at 345-5346. General tickets are $55. Benefactor tickets are $125, offering an invitation to a pre-dinner reception with McPherson in a private home and preferred seating at the dinner and lecture. IHC always recommends reserving tickets early as the event usually sells out.

McPherson's most recent book Tried by War: Abraham Lincoln as Commander in Chief (2008) explores how Lincoln had almost no military experience when he was elected but went on to define the role of the American commander-in-chief as he led the country through the Civil War. McPherson draws on almost 50 years of research to present a cogent and concise narrative of how Lincoln, working against enormous odds, preserved the union and the United States of America.

Idaho Humanities Council welcomes applications for grants and Research Fellowships

- The Idaho Humanities Council invites proposals for Mini and Major grants, Teacher Incentive Grants, and Research Fellowships from organizations and individuals for consideration at the Council's fall grant round. The deadline for grant proposals is September 15, 2009. Prospective applicants are strongly encouraged to contact IHC staff well in advance of the deadline to discuss their project ideas before beginning a proposal. IHC also strongly recommends that prospective applicants submit a rough draft proposal for critique in August.

Teacher Incentive Grants are limited to $1,000, and are awarded to K-12 teachers to enhance the way they teach the humanities in the classroom.

Research Fellowships are special awards to scholars to support research in any field of the humanities. They are limited to $3,500, awarded only once a year, and may be used to support expenses related to research, including travel to special archives, lodging, and related expenses. IHC awards up to four Research Fellowships each fall.

Mini grants (under $2,000) and Major Grants (over $2,000) over the years have supported museum and library exhibits, oral history projects, heritage tourism projects, literary events, special lectures, the preservation of historical photo archives, Chautauqua programs, community-wide reading programs, humanities-focused conferences, and a variety of projects and programs that inspire community dialogue in the humanities.

Grant guidelines and applications, including new Research Fellowship guidelines, are posted on the IHC website: www.idahohumanities.org. The website also includes a listing of recent grant awards and other general information.

The Council has a special interest in projects that encourage dialogue about local or national issues from a humanities perspective, as well as projects that may be funded through the Council's "We the People" program to enhance understanding of American or local history. Projects exploring diversity issues also are encouraged.

The Idaho Humanities Council is a non-profit organization serving as the state-based affiliate of the National Endowment for the Humanities, dedicated to promoting public understanding and appreciation of literature, history, philosophy, law, anthropology, and other humanities disciplines in Idaho. For more information, call the IHC at 208-345-5346 (Outside Boise area call toll-free at 888/345-5346), or visit IHC's website at www.idahohumanities.org

READING AT BOOKPEOPLE: Come down to BookPeople on Saturday, August 1, 10a.m.-noon to hear Tami Lynn Kent read from her new book, Wild Feminine: Finding Power, Spirit & Joy in the Root of the Female Body. In her groundbreaking book, Tami Lynn Kent invites every woman to journey deep into the heart of the female body, to her root place, and the root of all womanhood. Through stories, visualizations, and creative exercises, the wisdom arising from the female body has been distilled into this guide for us to explore the feminine nature as never before. Based on her work with women in the pelvic space as a women's health physical therapist, Kent has created a whole new way of discovering the female form. Kent draws from her experiences with the physical body and the female energy system to provide a framework for us to explore our inherently creative nature: this inner range of the wild feminine. Kent teaches us how to read the physical and energetic patterns of the pelvic bowl and restore access to the natural resources of the wildness within our bodies. Along the way, Kent infuses this guide with healing stories and rituals for every woman to cultivate her creative ground, change core patterns that diminish her radiance, and receive sustenance from her own wild feminine.

Local writer Rochelle Smith is in the current, July 2009 issue of The Sun. Rochelle is from Trinidad and Tobago, has traveled to Scotland four times, and currently lives in Moscow! The essay in The Sun, "Archipelagoes", is dedicated to her grandmother, who recently passed away at the age of ninety-seven. Come down to BookPeople to pick up your copy today!

Wanted--

-I'm distributing free books and teaching materials to schools in the Boise area through my Bailiwick School Kit program. We had a HUGE response from teachers in Boise who wanted the kits (which include 30 free copies of my books, lesson plans, student activities and a gift from me). The program operates as a sponsorship program. So small individuals, small businesses and civic organizations can sponsor the classroom sets for only $250 and the reading group sets for only $99. We've placed six kits at schools in Boise, with one school pending, but I still have twelve schools in the district waiting for sponsors.

Do you know any possible sponsors? The kits were designed to support history education and literacy. The teachers who signed up have been waiting for their kits since November. To learn more about the program, please visit www.bailiwickpress.com and go to the Bailiwick School Kits page.
